Niana Faison

Hello My name is Niana,

I am an experienced Chicago based model where I was born & raised. I really feel the sky is the limit for me when it comes to the entertainment industry. I love to dance & I love Hip Hop, because it has a power all it's own like no other form of music when it's driven by strong lyrics.

I was voted the "First Lady" of Stunnaz Magazine by the fans. I was fortunate enough to have attended Depaul University in Chicago where I majored in Physics. So there are some brains that come along with this big butt & smile...lol.

There is no job too small or too large for me to handle. With my fun loving attitude, educational background, and modeling experience I can adapt to just about any situation. I am flexible and I know I have motivation it takes to be a success in the industry.
